in 28 minutes — 1.04 a minute. Highest value produced on the floor tonight.

WHEN IT TURNED

6:06 left in the 1st half

Braylon Mullins makes 25-foot three point jumper (Malachi Smith assists) — the last lead change of the game. The lead never changed hands again.

THE RUN THAT MATTERED. A 6–0 run from 3:16 left in the 1st half to 2:31 left in the 1st half, ending 29-25. 2 runs of 6+ unanswered points tonight against 1 the other way.

THE READ

Michigan Wolverines won by 6 and produced +74 in certified value across 67 possessions. Morez Johnson Jr. carried it with +29. The game turned at 6:06 left in the 1st half. Every figure on the pages that follow is the evidence behind this one.

GAME FLOW • WHEN CONTROL CHANGED HANDS

The game did not turn where the box score says.

Every figure here is read from the certified play record — the running score, in order. A run is 6 or more unanswered points. The turning point is the last lead change of the game.

THE LAST LEAD CHANGE

6:06 left in the 1st half

Braylon Mullins makes 25-foot three point jumper (Malachi Smith assists)
Score 21–23. The lead never changed hands again.

THE RUN THAT MATTERED. 6–0 from 3:16 left in the 1st half to 2:31 left in the 1st half, ending 29-25.

WHAT THIS PAGE WILL NOT CLAIM. A run is an unanswered scoring sequence, not a verdict on effort or scheme. The turning point is defined as the last lead change — it is where control settled, not the only moment that mattered.
